Rideau View Golf Club renews sponsorship with PGA Tour star Brad Fritsch

Ottawa (October, 2013) – Rideau View Golf Club and Brad Fritsch have agreed to terms that will once again see the Manotick golf course proudly sponsor the 2014 PGA Tour member.

Fritsch, who earned his 2014 PGA Tour card after finishing tied for second in the Web.com Tour Championship, has been a longtime member of Rideau View, and the sponsorship was a natural fit.

“I couldn’t be happier to once again be sponsored by Rideau View Golf Club. I love the golf course and the people there have always supported me,” said Fritsch.

Rideau View Golf Club was more than happy to re-sign its most well known member to another year of sponsorship.

“We couldn’t be prouder for Brad. The entire Rideau View family was rooting for him, and it’s great to know that he’ll be back on the PGA Tour this year,” said Rideau View general manager Steve Ducat.

Fritsch, who is represented by his brother Stephen and the Ottawa-based Bytown Sports, will have the Rideau View logo on his apparel for the upcoming 2014 PGA TOUR season. He will also appear at the annual Rideau View Pro-Am in the summer.

“We were happy to see that Rideau View Golf Club renewed their commitment to sponsoring Brad. Having his home club continue on as one of his sponsors, reaffirms the support the club has shown over the years,” the younger Fritsch noted.

Fritsch, who began his 2014 campaign at the Frys.com Open, will also be travelling to Australia in the coming weeks to represent Canada alongside David Hearn at the World Cup of Golf.
